

USA Student Chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery

School of Computer and Information Sciences

2010 Scholarship and Graduate Fellowship Application Form

Awards

Check

- | | | |
|--|---------|--------------------------|
| 1. ACM Outstanding Student Scholarship (undergraduate) | $1,500 | Applying for this: _____ |
| 2. CIS Outstanding Graduate Student Fellowship: | $1,500 | Applying for this: _____ |
| 3. Wei and David Feinstein – Rising Sophomore Scholarship: | $500 | Applying for this: _____ |
| 4. Bob Ryder (undergraduate) Scholarship | $500 | Applying for this: _____ |

Announcement of Winners : Winners announced at ACM Banquet on Friday, April 16th, 2010.

Requirements:

1. Student must have a minimum overall GPA of 3.0. The ACM undergraduate scholarship is for an undergraduate student, and the CIS Fellowship is for a graduate student.
2. Graduation date for student is Fall 2010 or later! I plan to graduate in _____ (fill in)

Name: _____, _____, _____ GPA: _____
 Last Middle Initial First

Class: _____ Jag ID # : _____

Phone # and/or Cell # : _____

E-Mail: _____

Signature: _____

Please attach to this form:

A recent copy of your grade report (Unofficial will suffice -- from PAWS or in FCW20)

A one page (maximum) statement that identifies: professional experiences that you have had, professional goals, and service contributions that you have made to the ACM, to the School of CIS, to USA or to our community. Service activities are an important component of the ACM Outstanding Student Scholarship.

Note: The evaluation committee may require an interview with finalists. If you have any questions, contact Dr. Langan at david.langan@gmail.com

Submit this form to: Dr. Alec Yasinsac (FCW 20).
Application Due Date: Tuesday, April 6th 2010